Community Arts North West

Community Arts North West (CAN) is a leading UK organisation in the field of participatory arts, migration and social change. CAN's pioneering work aims to create expression and visibility for the diverse communities and artists based in the region through dynamic partnerships and inspirational programmes of work. It is an Arts Council England - National Portfolio Organisation and Manchester City Council Cultural Partner 2023-2026.

CAN is at the forefront of contemporary, inter-cultural arts practice and has been a leader in the field of participatory arts since 1978. We have a particular expertise and interest in arts & migration. We work in partnership with culturally-diverse communities, artists, cultural and third sector agencies in Greater Manchester, to develop unique, creative projects with people whose voices are not normally heard in the mainstream.

Through exciting, high-quality and meaningful creative projects CAN shares powerful creative work; shining a light on new talent and fresh voices, and enriching Greater Manchester's cultural landscape.

CAN's particular specialism are projects that bring together people from across cultures and communities. We work across a wide range of art-forms including new theatre, live interactive mixed-media performance-based work, new music, digitally created arts, festivals, events and new platforms for sharing and distributing work.

CAN's work is firmly rooted in social justice and driven by ethical values:

- We stand in solidarity with people at the sharp end of poverty and oppression, believing that everyone is creative, and through cultural expression, people on the margins can have a voice and provoke change.
- Co-creation and shared leadership are crucial for CAN in developing deep and lasting connections with communities, young people, artists, audiences and partners.
- We champion equality and strive for diversity in the artists we work with, our staff and Board, and the organisations we choose to work with.
- We welcome new migrant communities as collaborators and creative partners; and we are a home for emerging artists, especially those who are new to the UK.

Plans for the future

CAN is at an exciting point in its development. Funding from Arts Council England as a National Portfolio Organisation (NPO), and Manchester City Council Cultural Partner is secured for 2024-26. The Creative Director post is key to successfully developing a new dynamic creative programme for 2024 and beyond.

Current important artistic initiatives include: the Horizons Festival Refugee Week at HOME partnership programme 2024-26, a three-year Young People's Arts programme in Manchester, and a Rochdale-based combined arts programme working with diverse women's groups. Please see the attached Extract of the CAN Business Plan 2023-26 for more details about these programmes.

The Creative Director

This post is a key role within Community Arts North West. It provides an excellent opportunity for an outstanding and talented individual to lead the creative programme of this ambitious art company. We have earned a solid regional and national reputation for our work and its legacy, which is embedded within the region's cultural offer.

We are looking for an experienced individual to provide strong inspirational, creative leadership to enable CAN to achieve its artistic and strategic objectives within a changing cultural and economic environment.

The Creative Director will lead the CAN Creative Producer team in the development and delivery of an artistically diverse, socially engaged arts programme, responding to the ambitions and cultural aspirations of Greater Manchester's diverse communities and connecting programmes to wider cultural-sector initiatives.

This will involve brokering dynamic partnerships that bring communities, artists, mainstream, independent and voluntary arts sectors together with third-sector agencies, charities, and other public bodies.

You will share the company's core values, passion and commitment to the development of culturally-diverse led arts practice, the company's remit as a learning organisation, and be open to new ideas and ways of working.

The Creative Director will work closely with the Executive Director, responsible for the business development and operational management of the company. As joint CEO, you will share in the cooperative joint stewardship of the company, ensuring the company achieves its artistic, audience and financial objectives, reporting to the Board of Directors, and leading CAN's fundraising activities.

CAN is dedicated to building a diverse and equitable environment, and strongly encourages applications from people from diverse communities. CAN will support the right candidate into the role, through training, mentoring and other support.

The Creative Director - Job Description

Responsible to: CAN Board of Directors
